Dedication

Wesley-like, you were providentially spared for extraordinary service to Jesus Christ in proclamation, instruction and administration. Jeremiahlike, a fire burns within you. We have seen it ablaze under the revival canopy, in the classroom and pulpit. It has burned against rebel and heretic. Yet, paradoxically, it has warmed a multitude — penitents, colleagues, intimates, family . . . and us. The fire of your mind, spirit and words has rendered us more readily inflammable. If we are thus consumed by a godly zeal, it shall be in no small measure attributable to your unquenchable influence. In token of graditude, we dedicate this volume to you, George R. Brunk, II.

Statement of Purpose

Eastern Mennonite Seminary, as a graduate level training school on the campus of Eastern Mennonite College, is committed to:

- preparing persons for preaching-teaching, pastoral and mission ministries under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, learned in the scriptures and empowered by the Holy Spirit.
- providing a stimulating and congenial atmosphere in which men and women of all denominations and ethnic backgrounds can pursue biblical and theological studies in a community of believers.
- emphasizing a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and faithful discipleship as exemplified by the New Testament Apostolic Church and nurtured in the Anabaptist-Mennonite heritage.
- giving high priority to the task of evangelism and the building of church as the redemptive Body of Christ in the world.

History

Eastern Mennonite Seminary is the outgrowth of the curriculum in Bible at Eastern Mennonite College which was founded through the vision of Mennonite leaders in Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania to provide a training institution of higher learning for the denomination's youth. As early as 1918 courses at the college level were offered in advanced Biblical study. During the next ten years these offerings steadily increased. By 1937, a four-year Bible course was instituted, and within several years it was expanded to five years. In the 1948-49 year, the Bachelor of Theology curriculum, a two-year post-graduate course of study, was added.

The program of graduate training continued to develop into a separate curriculum and operation of its own, though continuing under the overall administration of Eastern Mennonite College. In 1960 the curriculum was enlarged to encompass three years of study, and the Bachelor of Divinity degree was offered for the first time. Five years later the seminary adopted its formal name and an acting dean was appointed. By 1968 the separate seminary facility was in use, a three-term calendar was adopted, and the Master of Divinity degree was authorized. Since then, the seminary has been granted Associate Membership in the Association of Theological Schools. A two-year Master of Arts in Religion program has been added, and a one-year course for ministers and others interested in the work of the church offers a Certificate of Biblical Studies.

The seminary has reached its highest enrollment in the current 1977-78 year with a spring term registration of 63 full-time and 20 part-time, plus 15 auditors and extension students. While the seminary is oriented toward the Anabaptist-Mennonite Biblical-theological stance, its teaching-training ministry is serving students representing fifteen church denominations.

Guest Editorial

The issue of social justice raises the question of discipleship in a stark, painful way. We have to decide whether we will follow Jesus or not. Jesus seems to have gone out of his way to warn people about the cost of becoming his disciples. He made it crystal clear that it had to be all or nothing.

Jesus did not try to make becoming his follower as easy as possible. He was not interested in church growth at the expense of faithful discipleship. When his popularity spread and large crowds swarmed around him, he stated the demands of discipleship harshly: "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. . . . So therefore, whoever of you does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:25ff)

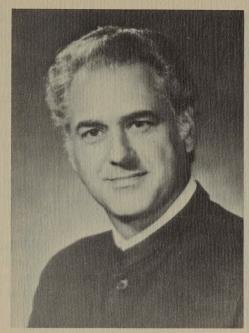

Most of us North Americans have the same problem as the rich young man who came to Jesus. Jesus did not tell him: Just say a short prayer and I'll forgive you and give you inner peace, a happy family life and success in business. Jesus spelled out the demands of discipleship as sharply as possible. If you want to be my disciple, Jesus said, then I must be total, absolute Lord of your life. You will have to sell all your goods because money is your idol.

Either we surrender our total selves to him as unconditional Lord and Master or we cannot be his disciples at all—at least that's what he said. And when we do say yes to him as Lord, he accepts us just as we are and begins to remake us according to the model of his Son, according to the model of his own self-giving love.

Ronald J. Sider B.D., Ph.D. Assistant Professor of History and Religion Messiah College Philadelphia Campus Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

The President

Myron S. Augsburger, President Eastern Mennonite College, Inc. B.A., Th.B., Th.M., Th.D. Professor of Theology

Each generation needs its "prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers, for the perfecting of the saints for the work of ministering." And the Holy Spirit gives these gifts to the church to enable her in the mission of Christ. Our role in seminary training is not academic achievements alone, but is a stimulus for us to discern and function in the will, and with the enabling, of the Spirit. He will exhalt Christ in our lives and service by renewing us in His love.

Renewal in the church can only be measured by Christ likeness. It is not just a resurgence of piety, but a rediscovery of obedience. Discipleship is not simply verbal articulation, it is genuine awareness that Jesus is Master in all of life. And obedience to His Mastery calls for clear objectives and specific determination of priorities, such as will express the rule of Christ in life.

We are not simply producing graduates at EMS, but partners in the mission of Christ, persons whose life in faith will bring a refreshing enrichment and growth to the church.

The Dean

George R. Brunk, III,
Acting Dean,
Eastern Mennonite Seminary
B.A., B.D., Th.D.
Assistant Professor of
New Testament

Our lives have touched each other for a brief segment of time. We have walked together in the school of Christian discipleship, sharing knowledge and, even more, giving of our selves to one another in care and counsel. We have pursued truth and been pursued by the Truth. We have discovered our limitations and finitude but also our gifts. The discipline of hard work and tight schedules has prepared us for vineyard toil. We have lived the meaning of the body of Christ — an intermingling of life that will endure because He lives eternally.

Yet this is only a beginning. It should be left behind but hopefully never forgotten. It can be surpassed by new growth but will be acknowledged as contributor to all subsequent experience. The Seminary does not make us complete and ready for every dimension of ministry. We cannot learn in three years the competencies required for a life time. If a vision for ministry is strengthened and a foundation for openness to true growth and new learning is laid, our purpose if fulfilled.

The Registrar

1977-78 was a growth year for EMS. The statistics counters among us have observed a very interesting phenomena. At five year intervals EMS can expect an enrollment increase of 35 to 40 percent over the previous year. True to form, it happened again in 1977-78.

Counting all noses of people taking classes at EMS, we passed the 100 mark for the first time in history. Subtracting the college students taking Seminary courses we still came close to the century mark — 92-98-98 respectively for the three terms.

That means more work, more fun, bigger classes, a broader spectrum of experience to share from among students, and some room to expand our present facilities. For a good year, we praise the Lord and accept the challenge which it brings to us.

The 1977-78 Seminary Chorus began with six members, but with recruitment efforts grew to a Men's Chorus of 18 members and a Ladies' Chorus of 10 members. Roy D. Roth served as director of both groups. Barbara Beard was the accompanist.

In addition to EMC/EMS chapel appearances and programs in local congregations, three tours were taken: a weekend tour to southeastern Virginia, February 3-5; an Easter tour to northeastern Pennsylvania, March 23-26; and a short tour to West Virginia on April 29 and 30.

The Seminary Chorus develops a sharing and caring concern, a feeling of "family" among its members. Further, the chorus grows in Christian stature as it allows the faith and love engendered by the Sacred texts and tunes to contribute to its spiritual maturity.

Class Motto

"Take up your cross and follow me"

Reflections of Senior Class Members:

Disowning myself, turning to Jesus Christ and willingly accepting the consequences of my following Him. R. Arnold

Sell everything you own and give it to the poor. J. Barnes

We will not hang on a literal cross, but we must, like Jesus, die to our own ways, do His will and suffer the consequences in the joy of the Holy Spirit. R. Clark, Jr.

Looking — Not to the quiet pools in the backwash but to the main current, the crossroads of suffering humanity; not to the heavenly pastures but to the triumph of the cause of Christ. G. Egli

I pledge allegience to the Kingdom of God and the Lordship of Christ. I forsake the world and make myself a bond-servant of the Gospel.

C. R. Graybill

It is amazing how the most profound theological questions simply supply the backdrop for the simple question of faith, 'What does it mean for me to follow Jesus today?' K. Handrich

Our cross is not Christ's cross, but it is made of the same stuff. B. Hart Voluntarily I choose to live my life for others, letting the life of Jesus show me what true spirituality is. G. Keener

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace and self-giving love, to sow meaning and promise in a world of dispair, injury, confusion and indifference. D. Kreider

The Church can no longer continue to be a self-gratifying social club; it must be the decisive cutting edge into today's sin-ridden world. P.D.

As a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ I must be willing to go where He would have me go and do what He would have me do. L. Hulvey

To follow Christ is to not be afraid to be different . . . but to be different together as part of His body — for His sake! D. Stitt

I want no eulogy at the end of my ministry. Just let it be said that he loved and cared for others more than he did for self. G. Walters
